

Disability Service Standards

- 1. Rights
Each person is aware of their rights and can expect to have them respected
Service providers are to uphold and promote the legal and human rights of each person
- 2. Participation
Each person is actively encouraged and supported to participate in their community in ways that are important to them
Service providers develop connections with the community to promote opportunities for active and meaningful participation
- 3. Individual outcomes
Service providers maximize person centred decision making
Service providers undertake person centred approaches to planning to enable each person to achieve their individual outcomes
- 4. Feedback and complaints
Each person is treated fairly by the service provider when making a complaint
Each person is provided with information and support to make a complaint
Each service provider has the capacity to handle and manage complaints
- 5. Service Access
Service providers make information available about their services
Service providers have clearly defined processes to access services
Service providers work with other organisations to increase each person's support options
- 6. Service Management
Each person receives quality services which are effectively and efficiently governed
Each person receives quality services that are well managed and delivered by skilled staff with the right values, attitudes, goals and experience.

Minimbah's person-centred family oriented day programs assist people with intellectual disabilities and related support needs to reach their potential, and for them and their families and carers to share more fully in the life of the community.

Feedback and Complaints

Minimbah welcomes
feedback and complaints which will enable us to improve the quality of our services.

You have a right to complain

- Your comments, feedback and complaints are welcome and important to us. They help us to correct our mistakes and improve our services
- You may give feedback or make complaints in person, by telephone, email or fax, in a letter, or on the form attached
- Complaints can be made by clients, families, advocates or others who are concerned
- All complaints are treated confidentially
- You can choose a support person to help you in making a complaint, the person may be a family member, a friend or an advocate
- The grievance procedure will be conducted in a way that reflects your cultural and linguistic requirements, including access to interpreters if required. Please tell us what you need.
- We will address the problem quickly; a meeting will be held within 2 weeks of your complaint being made, and the agreed decision will be written down and communicated to you in your preferred format
- Minimbah staff have a duty to assist and support you in making a complaint

Making a complaint

This is how you do it: Remember:

1. Try to sort out the problem by discussing it with the person involved. If the problem is not solved, go to step 2.
2. Take the problem to the General Manager. If you still do not have a solution, go to step 3.
3. Ask for the matter to be looked at by representatives from the Board of Directors.

You are welcome to have a support person or advocate with you at any stage of this process.
